I CREATE BECAUSE...

I want to inspire people with my art and capture the beauty of the moment with my camera. It is not about taking a "beautiful" photo. It is not about making everything or everyone look perfect. What is more important is the story. Simplicity and authenticity. This is what I create. This is why I create.

CELIN MAY

I am Celin and I am a self-taught photographer, videographer, and AR designer from Austria. I first studied international business in Vienna before I discovered my love for photography and design. Finding new ways to express my ideas and creativity is not only what I enjoy but what I burn for: I am passionate about telling stories and capturing moments.

FOCUS: EMOTIONS

Every single work I create aims to capture and express a specific emotion with which everyone can identify themselves.

CELIN MAY

I create stories.

I focus on telling a story with my work – no matter if photo or video.

Storytelling is a key element of my art.

The last sunrise

Summer 2019

The photo series "summer 2019" reflects the glorious end of my last summer in Vienna - a city that caught my heart straight from the beginning. We used the last sunny day of this summer to create a series that should be able to demonstrate the beauty of this city.

Experience

Art means drawing from experience. Simultaneously, experimenting is key to generate valuable and original content. One has to be open for change and dare to step out of one's comfort zone.

Bathroom Floor #2

This series is a second part of the project "Bathroom Floors" which focuses on the weak moments everyone experiences sometimes. The colors and the expression of the model should reflect a certain emotion of "feeling lost".
